

SEQUITVR celebritas & pompa funeris quemadmodum a Clarence Armorum et insignium rege instituta est, una cum varietate vestimentorum, quibus pro loco et gradu cuiusque latus singulis utuntur. Hos inserviunt sunt maioris magnificentiae et honoris ergo Urbis Londinensis Praefectus et Senatores ex equis purpuratis: tum solenniter suo habitu Aromatarii, in quorum numero se ascribi placent: tandem indutus sagis nigrioribus Londinensis pedatus, scilicet et hastatis 300 qui simulacrum corpus in humatu est exequias honoris bombardarum bis resonantium prosecuti sunt. Descriptum & inventum hoc opus primum est a Tho. Lant generoso, famulo huius honoratissimi Equitis insculptum deinde in aere a Derico Theodor D'brij in Urbe Londinensi 1587 *

HERE followeth the manner of the whole proceeding of his funeral which was celebrated in St Pauls the 16. of febr. 1586. with the self same state and order as the mourners were marshalled by Robert Cooke at the Clarence Kings of Armes; with the diuer sity of charge and apparel and action after their funeral Decree. And to solemnize the same there followed next unto the mourners, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of the City of London, riding in purple, after them the Company of Grocers of wch he was free, and lastly certayne yong men of the City marching by tye and tye, in black Cassocks with their Shott, Pikes, halberds, and Ensigne trauelling on the ground, to the number of 300. who so soon as he was interred, honored the obsequy with a double volley.
 This worke was first drawne and invented by Tho. Lant Gent, swant to the said Tho. Knight, and grauen in Copper by Derick Theodor de Bry in the City of London. 1587 *

THIS WORTHY KNIGHT

S^r Phillip Sidney, in the cause of his god and true religion, and for the honor of his Prince & country, spared not to spende his blud as you haue harde. For his witt, learninge, & knowledge in diuers languages he was muche admired, for his courtasie & affability towards all men no less beloued, and for all other his singuler parts of bounty, courag & liberaliti (bothe to strangers & his owne country men) as greatly honored of all that harde his fame (w^h was spread about the worlde) as of those that knew him heart at home. And as he thus liued being of all beloued, so moste honorably he dyed & lamentably interred by the appointment of the right honorable, S^r Frances Walsingham knight, principall Secretary, & one of her Maiesties most honorable priue Counsell (his father in lawe) who spared not any coste to haue this funerall well yformed. He was caried from the Minorites (w^h is with out Aldgate) along the cheefe streets of the Cytye vnto the Cathedrall church of s^t Pauls, y^e w^h streets all a long were so thronged with people, that y^e mourners had scarcely roome to pass, the houses likewise were as full as they might be, of w^h greate multitude ther wear fewe or none that shed not some tears as the corps passed by them. Of the mourners euery Gent had a man, euery knight 2, some Nobles 12, some more, some less, as also sundry English Capt of the low Countrey w^h diuers other Gent that came voluntary & are not in this woork expressed, so that the whole n^uber were about 700 persons. The great west doore of s^t Pauls (where y^e mourners entred) was kept by some of her Ma^{ties} Gaard, y^e Quier & hearst by 2 Harolds of Armes, viz. Nico. Dethicke als w^hnd for, & Edm. Knight, als. Chester, who placed y^e nobles & others according to their degrees. So when the sermon was ended y^e offeringes & other seremonies finished & his body interred y^e soldiers in y^e church yard did by a double volye giue vnto his famous life & death, a Marciall vale. 1588 *
